

SOCIAL-EMOTIONAL LEARNING CLASSROOM LIBRARIES

Empower students' hearts and minds and foster emotional intelligence.

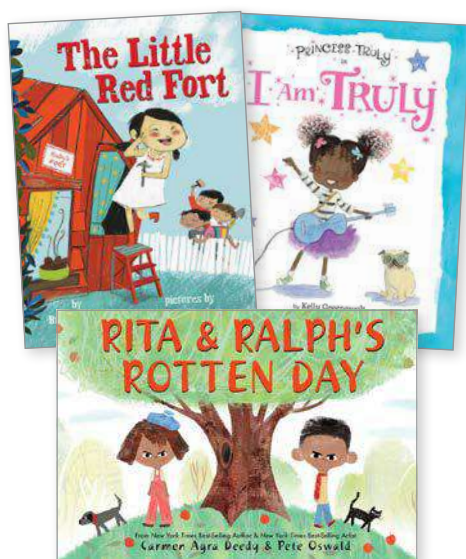

Incorporate social-emotional learning into your everyday instruction with our classroom libraries! Social and emotional learning, often abbreviated to "SEL," is an integral and essential part of child development.

Our classroom libraries provide a familiar setting for discussing complicated topics. Reading books with specific SEL subject matter offers additional value for children by putting emotions, experiences, and challenges at the forefront of the reading experience.

Features for each grade level:

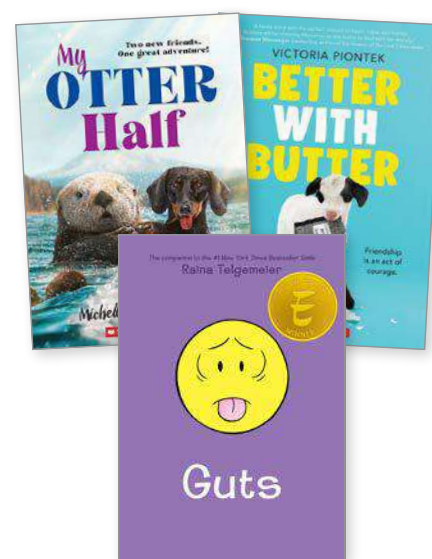

- Digital teacher's guide
- Printable flashcards with discussion prompts
- Classroom bins for book storage
- Suitable for small-group or whole-class instruction
- Culturally responsive thematic material
- Range of number of books in each collection (between 16 and 21)
- Can purchase multiple-copy set (4 copies of each title) or single-copy set
