1. Dur - ing a long win - ter snow, need - ing a co - zy place to stay, for sleep - ing and snor - ing, bears live in caves.

Chorus

Caves are hollow and made of stone.
Caves can be an animal's home.
Who lives in a cave?
A butterfly who is trying to hide?
No!

Verse 2

During a springtime rain, needing a dry place to hang,
for sleeping and dreaming,
bats live in caves.

Chorus

Caves are hollow and made of stone.
Caves can be an animal's home.
Who lives in a cave?
An eagle looking for its next meal?
No!

Verse 3

During a hot summer night,
needing a cool place to stay,
for eating and sleeping,
snakes live in caves.

Chorus

Caves are hollow and made of stone.
Caves can be an animal's home.
Who lives in a cave?
An antelope without a home?
No!

Verse 4

During a bright fall day,
needing to escape the sun's rays,
for hiding and jumping,
crickets live in caves.
