

Correlation to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR)

Correlation to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages Building strong foundation in English Proficiency among beginning language learners

Correlation to the Common European Framework for Reference (CEFR): Scholastic World of English (SWE) Program Level 1

SWE Program: Level 1 → A1 (Beginner / Basic User)

- Can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases.
- Can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has.
- Can interact in a simple way, provided the other person talks slowly and is prepared to help.

Correlation to the Common European Framework for Reference (CEFR): Scholastic World of English Program Level 2

SWE Program: Level 2 → A1-A2 (Beginner / Basic User)

- Can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases.
- Can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives and things he/she has.
- Can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment).
- Can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters.

Correlation to the Common European Framework for Reference (CEFR): Scholastic World of English Program Level 3

SWE Program: Level 3 → A2 (Beginner / Basic User)

- Can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment).
- Can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters.
- Can describe in simple terms aspects of his/her background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.